The modern pedigree of Herbst Queen's mum Herbstwolke combines the mare families of Donau and Herbstlicht and her dam produced the approved stallion Heidsieck by Tanzmeister in 1999, which has started a very promising dressage career. Herbstwolke is a dynamic filly with a tremendously swinging and almost ostentatious movement due to her impressive conformation and her daughter Herbst Queen seem to be following in her footsteps.

Future jewel for dressage and breeding, Herbst Queen has a wonderful combination of the genes of the leading sires Sixtus, Kennedy, Michelangelo and Ibikus. If you look into the 3rd generation you will also find outstanding bloodlines for dressage and for high level of breeding too.

Donauwalzer was awarded a premium at his grading and is the most impressive son of Elite stallion Sixtus. This wonderful chestnut stallion is very noble, athletic and shows the most powerful and elastic trot with a wonderful walk and uphill canter. His mother Donaflut by Ibikus is one of the youngest of her legendary father and founded her own branch of the famous Donau-family. Grandmother is Donaflamme a very typical daughter of the world famous sire Habicht. Donauwalzer represents an outstanding line breeding to Ibikus and to Habicht, two of the most famous sires for breeding and competition within the last 50 years.

Michelangelo founded besides Mahagoni the second line of the unforgotten Pastur xx. Inselkonig, who was a popular Sire in the Hannoverian breed and the American Trakehner breed too.

The herbst-family counts among the most successful, valuable and proven families of the Trakehner breed, producing great Sires such as Herzzauber, Herzkristall, Herzbube, Herbstruf, Herzkonig, Herbststurm and great dressage horses like the Olympic star Hirtentraum.

Hibiskus the Reserve champion of the stallion grading in 2002, nevertheless the star of the show and big parts of the crowd looked at him as the real champion. He seems to be the symbol of riding quality on the highest level and has proven this in his performance tests. Highlight in his career as a young dressage horse came when he was 3rd in the German Federal Dressage Championships as a three-year-old, trained and being ridden by Olympic rider Ingrid Klimke.

His sire Latimer became German 4 year old Champion and carries the Elite title, he is competing successfully up to Grand Prix and today is looked at as guarantee for high quality dressage attitudes.

Hibiskus' dam is by the Elite stallion Hohenstein, worldwide highly reputation as a dressage star for all warm blood breeds.

Hibiskus's maternal family leads back to the Herzchen- family, which keeps a central position, as one of the most valuable mare families in the Trakehner breed, on a competition and breeding point, one only have to look at her prominent members Reserve champion Hirtenruf, Grand-Prix-stallion Heinrich der Welfe, Elitestallion Herzruf, FEI Henrick Der Lowe and premium stallion Hirtentanz to realize how good this mare family is.

Hibiskus has already proven himself as a sire. He is always improving conformation, canter and especially the elasticity of all gaits. Hibiskus's foals, has a high reputation for outstanding attitudes in character and temperament.

This outstanding filly has great character with wonderful expressive paces she will be staying at the stud for one day to join our herd.
